This satellite location of the La Cienega flagship restaurant is perched on the bougainvillea-lined terrace of the Frederic Fekkai salon, which means you're sure to see plenty of beautiful, super-skinny people munching on the wide variety of fresh, organic salads and crepes.

On the menu you'll find 15 salads made from baby mixed greens, chicken breast, salmon, lamb, smoked duck breast, sun-dried tomatoes and cheeses imported from France. But don't worry if you're in the mood to be a bit bad you can wash down all that goodness with a refreshing glass of wine.
